CULTURAL ARTS

CITY OF BURBANK - AN ARTS DESTINATION

The Burbank Cultural Arts Commission is ready to launch a vibrant new website to promote Burbank's rich and diverse arts and cultural opportunities. As we prepare for the momentous launch, we need local artists and arts-related organizations to visit the website and add their calendared public events information.

NATURE CENTER - HIKES AND ACTIVITIES

Beginning at the top of Walnut Avenue, near the Nature Center, the fire road leads to the Verdugo Mountainway Trail. The Verdugo Mountainway is an extensive trail system which extends from the Sun Valley area, south to Brand Park in Glendale, and northeast to Tujunga and La Crescenta. Hiking and mountain biking are permitted on the fire roads. The smaller trails are for hiking only, and along with the fire roads, lead to spectacular views of the San Fernando Valley.

ART EXPERIENCES

Exploring Our World Through Art, Dance, Music, and Theatre Art Experiences is for artists ages 5-11 years (5 year olds must have completed Kindergarten). Artists will enjoy a variety of visual and performing arts activities designed to enrich, excite, and inspire. Activities will be integrated by a thematic approach which adds special focus to exciting experiences.

Seven weekly sessions
Cost: $75 per session
Days: Monday - Friday

ARTS IN PUBLIC PLACES

The City of Burbank's Art in Public Places Program was founded on the belief that the visual environment plays an essential role in creating the atmosphere for an enterprise culture and civic confidence.

This program has made it possible for recognized artists to enhance public spaces throughout the City with sculpture, murals, and environs. The art pieces have become emblematic to Burbank's commitment and the enrichment of the City's cultural and educational exciting identity.
